

LLU CME Advertising – Direct Sponsor

No prior advertising or registration is allowed until your course is approved for CME credit. Once your course is approved for CME, the disclosure/accreditation statement and your overall course objective needs to go on all advertising and must be approved by the CME office prior to publication. Please copy and paste the wording below into your advertising as it must be used verbatim and with the appropriate italics and superscript. You may NOT say that “CME credit has been applied for, is pending or in process.”

Accreditation Statement

The Loma Linda University School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Loma Linda University School of Medicine designates this Live Activity for a maximum of AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This program has been planned and implemented in accordance with ACCME essentials and standards. The Loma Linda University School of Medicine Office of Continuing Medical Education relies on its CME faculty to provide program content that is free of commercial bias. Therefore, in accordance with ACCME standards, any faculty and/or provider industry relationships will be disclosed and resolved.

STATEMENT of PURPOSE or OVERALL OBJECTIVE - S A M P L E

This program is designed to provide current, concise information on patient safety and risk management that is relevant to physicians and other health care providers in all specialties. The attendee will be informed of practices that will improve patient safety and enhance risk management skills. In addition, a short lecture on stress will provide an overview on the importance of the nature of psychological stress and will describe the mechanisms that link stress with disease and appropriate interventions.